

Book Week: Celebrating Languages and Stories

During Book Week we had parents volunteer to read in their home language so we could celebrate the rich cultural diversity within our school community. We were delighted to have several parents share stories in their home languages:

Mrs Munankarmi read in Nepalese.

Mr Mineo read in Italian.

Mrs Brites read in Maltese.

These readings gave students a wonderful opportunity to hear picture books in different languages and to appreciate the beauty of storytelling across cultures. We sincerely thank our parent volunteers for making Book Week even more special!

THANK YOU!
